Biography

The Diggles Family started as a part time ministry with a concert on August 15, 2004, in Butler, NJ. They did not know at that time that God was actually preparing them for full time ministry, which has been the desire of their hearts. On November 4, 2004, Doug lost his full time job, and the adventure on which God was leading this family took a new turn. They felt God had opened a door, leading them into full time ministry just 3 months after their ministry began!

The Diggles Family is led by Doug Diggles who sings from his heart. He had been singing for the Lord as a solo artist for over two decades before his family joined him in song, forming Diggles Family Ministries, Inc., a 501 (c) (3) nonprofit organization. His voice is truly anointed, and when he sings you not only hear the song but you feel it as well. Doug enjoys singing lead, tenor, baritone, and bass, but his favorite part is bass. He also enjoys playing the piano. Doug has written one song, the title track of their album You Are My Strength. He is the Music Minister at First Christian Church, a Restoration Movement/Independent Christian Church, in Lexington, KY. This is a part time position which allows The Diggles Family to continue traveling ALL around the USA and into Canada.

Christina, 2013 homeschool graduate, has decided to continue with our ministry full time. To help support herself, Christina gives violin and guitar lessons and works as a distributor for Lilla Rose (www.lillarose.biz/awomansglory). She has a wonderful ear for harmony and enjoys singing, reading, art, crocheting, knitting, needlework, learning homemaking skills, and more. She has been reading and studying the Bible since she learned to read and can recite many passages of scripture. She also enjoys playing the viola, guitar, classical guitar, piano, mountain dulcimer, mandolin, ukulele, penny whistle, bodhran drum, resonator, accordion, and psaltery; but the violin is her favorite! Christina has begun to help arrange songs and write instrumental pieces, including a concerto for two violins, viola, and cello.

Katie is also musically gifted and enjoys being able to add the third part to their family harmony. She enjoys singing, memorizing passages of scripture, photography, writing poems, composing songs, reading, art, sewing/crafts, writing jokes, climbing trees, and running barefoot! Katie enjoys playing the violin, mandolin, piano, mountain dulcimer, guitar, ukulele, lap harp, bodhran drum, accordion, and psaltery. One of her songs, "It's Christmas Time Again", is currently being sung by our family, and was used in our church's 2014 Christmas cantata. She is also beginning to arrange instrumental pieces. She was baptized by her daddy on May 6, 2007, joining the rest of her family in the decision to follow, love, and serve the Lord Jesus Christ!

Diane runs the sound board, handles their scheduling, and does the ministry's computer work including creating and maintaining their website. She also enjoys cooking healthy food and baking fluffy fresh bread for her family and others. Diggles Family Ministries, Inc. is truly a family ministry. They work, play, travel, school, and minister together as a family.
